Nestled among the glacial hills of the Middle Kettle Moraine and on the shores of Lake Country, the Ice Age Trail Community of Delafield is a great spot for enjoying the Ice Age National Scenic Trail and amenities the city has to offer. The area is rich with the vast prairies and oak savannahs of Lapham Peak, award-winning restaurants, historical sites, local artisans, and enjoyable strolls along the Trail as it courses through one of the City's two shopping districts. Rest assured there is something in Delafield for everyone. Stop by the Visitor Center at 421 Main Street in downtown Delafield for more information about the area.

WHERE TO HIKE

Unless otherwise noted, dogs are allowed on the Ice Age Trail and should be under control and leashed at all times.

DELAFIELD SEGMENT

(3.5 miles)

The segment winds along the Bark River and includes a trek downtown Delafield before connecting with the Lake Country Recreation Trail.

LAPHAM PEAK SEGMENT

(7.8 miles)

This hilly segment offers eager hikers more of a challenge. The Trail winds through beautiful woods and prairie restoration sites and includes outstanding views at the top of Lapham Peak.

HARTLAND SEGMENT

(6.8 miles)

This segment connects Delafield to the Trail Community of Hartland. A highlight of the route is the chance to stop by three Conservationists' Hall of Fame commemorative sites.
